Professional Experience

Judge McPherson presided over Division 2 of Circuit Court for 18 years during which time he resolved over 1,000 civil matters through the pre-trial mediation process. He also presided over hundreds of jury trials.

Prior to his tenure in the judiciary, as well as after he retired from the bench, Judge McPherson accumulated 24 years of private law practice experience. Most recently, Judge McPherson was the Managing Partner of the Memphis, Tennessee office of the Chattanooga-based firm of Leitner Williams Dooley & Napolitan. He retired from the firm in 2005 and now devotes his private law practice exclusively to mediation and arbitration through Resolute Systems' Memphis office.
